Three minutes on what you should do if you feel God is calling you into mission.
Category: Observations

Over the next few weeks, I'm going to be posting a series of very short videos that address issues that arise when people think about mission work. They are only a few minutes long and don't pretend to handle all of the details, however, they each seek to make one central point which, I hope, will be helpful.

The first one is on the missionary call: please share the link with anyone who might be interested.
