HOW TO SUPPORT NATIONAL MISSIONARIES

What do church leaders need to think about when it comes to supporting missionaries from outside of the UK?
Category: Observations

The sixth video of my series on helping church leaders get to grips with their involvement in God's movement worldwide looks at the question of supporting missionaries from other countries. There is no easy term for this and I switch between "national" and "indigenous". I'm aware that some people won't like these terms, but I couldn't come up with anything better. Please accept my apologies in advance.

The Global Connections document on partnerships which I mention in the video is found here.
