MAINTENANCE OR MISSION?

Posted on December 8, 2021 by Eddie

What does Bible translation in CÃ´te d'Ivoire have to do with church planting in the North of England? Quite a lot, it turns out.
Category: Observations

Medhurst Ministries are a collaboration of local churches taking the gospel to the forgotten towns, villages and council estates of northern England. For someone, like myself, who grew up in one of these "forgotten towns" and who has now returned to the area in later life, their work resonates deeply. Not only that, but there are some surprising overlaps with my work in Bible translation and cross cultural mission.

A couple of weeks ago, I was interviewed by Ian Williamson, a church planter in Middlesborough, who works with Medhurst.

https://audioboom.com/posts/7992269-45-maintenance-or-mission-an-interview-with-eddie-arthur.mp3
Podcast: Play in new window | Download (Duration: 1:01:35 — 56.4MB) | Embed