El Fouch reflects on Proverbs, ants and the credit crisis:

> But it struck me yesterday as I read from the book of Proverbs that we are laying up a mass of trouble for ourselves and our children.
> Proverb 6:1-5 is a warning about standing surety for another's debts:
>
> Dear friend, if you've gone into hock with your neighbour or locked yourself into a deal with a stranger,
> If you've impulsively promised the shirt off your back > and now find yourself shivering out in the cold,
> Friend, don't waste a minute, get yourself out of that mess.
> You're in that man's clutches!
> Go, put on a long face; act desperate.
> Don't procrastinateâ€"
> there's no time to lose.
> Run like a deer from the hunter,
> fly like a bird from the trapper! (read more)
