WORKSHOP PHOTOS

Posted on August 16, 2006 by Eddie

Category: Observations

The bits of the paper on the wall are the plan for language development work in a Saharan language. Putting them on the wall like this allows us to move things around until we are happy with how it all works. The silouhette below is hardly flattering unfortunately.

