WHAT WE DID ON OUR DAY OFF

Posted on November 23, 2006 by Eddie

Category: Observations

Well, I'm back home after a long eight days of meetings. I can't complain, however, as we did get one day off in the middle of the conference and a few of us used it really well with a white water rafting trip. I've not had such an adrenalin rush in a long, long time! I still don't know what happened to my helmet and my paddle.

bMyDbvnWk8g