I love this quote from my colleague David Morgan in a recent edition of the Church Times

> Many of the remaining language groups with no translated scripture beÂlong to some of the worldâ€™s smallest and most inaccessible groups. â€œThese people are often the marginalised and the powerless, who receive little govÂernment aid,â€ Mr Morgan says. â€œThey are the â€˜inconvenient peopleâ€™. Wycliffe is committed to helping them.â€ (read the whole article - it is a long one)
