LITERACY IN IVORY COAST

Posted on September 11, 2007 by Eddie

Category: Language and Society

This Video produced by the Bible Society of New South Wales gives a good introduction to issues surrounding literacy and Bible translation. I must admit I was quite surprised to see that they are sponsoring literacy among the Kouya - I would have thought I'd know about that. It also shows the real dangers that can occur when Bible translation and literacy don't go hand in hand.