A link to an excellent talk by Mike Goheen giving an overview of the big picture of the Bible.
Category: Bible & Mission

I've mentioned from time to time that I appreciate Mike Goheen's insights into the Bible and Mission. This excellent talk will give you an idea why I think so highly of him. It takes an hour, but it's well worth it. Either listen to the talk now or keepÂ it for later, but don't ignore it. In six steps he takes us through an overview of the Bible, presenting the Christian message as public history, not something for private individual consumption. Did I mention that it's really good?
