Romans 1-11 summed up in one presentation, with two bad puns. It might be helpful, or it might give you motion sickness!

Last weekend, I was speaking at the Exilio church weekend on the book of Romans. Stereotypically, Evangelical preachers spend hours looking at each verse in this remarkable book. I took the opposite tack and attempted to cover the first eleven chapters in one session. To illustrate where I was going, I used this Prezi, which you might find interesting. There are a couple of really bad visual puns to lighten things up.
