CONFERENCE PHOTOS.

I quite like this photograph of me speaking at a Bible translation conference today. I don't know if I look as tired as I feel. This has been a very busy two weeks and it seems a long time ago that we were on holiday. However, after today I have no more responsibilities at the conference and I can just sit and listen for the last two days.

It will be good to get home.

The big screen over my shoulder is one of three showing the conference information in English, French and Spanish. Sue was part of the team making sure that the different screens stayed synchronised.
